

2018 HTANSW HSC History Study Days

- Venue: Carlslaw Lecture Complex
Eastern Avenue, the University of Sydney
- Dates: Thursday 14 June: Ancient, Modern and Extension History
Friday 15 June: Ancient and Modern History
Saturday 16 June: Ancient, Modern and Extension History
- Program: The lecture program will be sent to all schools and posted on HTANSW's website by early Term II.
- Format: The fine tradition of HTA study days will continue, with lectures on many popular topics by experienced teachers and HSC markers. Our program format is designed to provide a wide range of topics and choices that will be an advantage to students and teachers. For example, country students who do a number of history courses will have a choice of different days to attend.
- Remote Subsidy: As part of our ongoing commitment to supporting remote teachers & students, HTANSW offers the "Remote Subsidy Grant" to facilitate attendance at the HSC History Study Days. Each grant offers up to $1,000 in transport/accommodation subsidy. This year there will be 8 grants available.

Please Note:

- Each student will pay the regular admission fee to the Study Days
- Combined applications, where 2 or more schools share transport is encouraged
- Previous successful applicants may re-apply (but given a lower priority)
- See full selection criteria and conditions below

The following conditions will apply:

- Only applications from schools located more than 300 kilometres from Sydney will be considered
- Applying teachers or their school must be CURRENT MEMBERS of HTANSW
- Each student will pay admission fee for the Study Days
- Students will be expected to attend the lectures with their teacher

Criteria considered in the selection process include:

- combined applications
- remoteness of school
- maximum of 2 schools from any one area (North Coast, South Coast, North West, South West, West)
- length of membership with the HTA
- Previous support of the HSC Study Days
