

Call for Papers – 2018 Norfolk Island Conference – 8-15 January 2018

The History Teachers Association of NSW invites proposals for presentations at its 2018 Norfolk Island Conference, run in collaboration with Norfolk Island Central School and Norfolk Island Travel Centre.

Guidelines

- This will be a special conference, a unique opportunity to visit beautiful, history-rich Norfolk Island. Travel and accommodation costs will be an estimated $1200-1500 minimum. Presenters will be expected to cover these costs and register for the conference. (Costs, travel date options and other details will be available on the Conference Website by late April or early May 2017.)
- Presenters will be allocated a 45-60 minute session.
- Data projector facilities will be available but wifi access may not be available.
- The conference program will feature keynote speakers dealing with Pacific, Norfolk Island and general history and a range of sites studies and hands on sessions. However, we are also keen to include sessions with a classroom, curriculum or skills focus that deal with a range of areas such as:
  - The movement of peoples
  - Pacific and Norfolk Island topics relevant to the new (2017) NSW Modern History syllabus
  - Polynesian exploration and settlement of the Pacific
  - European exploration of the Pacific, trade and missionary activity
  - Pacific and New Zealand history and Australia's relations with New Zealand and the Pacific
  - Foundations of European settlement in Australia and convict history, including convict women
  - History, archaeology, museums and hands-on history
  - Experiences of WWI and WWII
  - Representations of history
- Only a limited number of papers will be presented.
- Submissions are to be made by email on the Conference Paper Proposal Form – see below.
- The closing date for proposals is 19 May 2017.
- Should a proposal be accepted, the information provided on the proposal form will be used to produce presenter profiles and abstracts in the conference program. It will be helpful if this information is accurate and provided in clear prose. Please ensure that all contact details remain current as we will rely upon prompt email communication.
- For all enquiries, please contact NSW HTA: (02) 9518 4940; htansw@tpg.com.au
