

2026 HTANSW HSC HISTORY STUDY DAYS

“Philippa Medcalf Memorial Remote Subsidy Grant”

- ❑ Venue: Carlslaw Lecture Complex
Eastern Avenue, the University of Sydney
- ❑ Dates:

Thursday 4 June: Ancient, Modern and Extension History

Friday 5 June: Ancient and Modern History

Saturday 6 June: Ancient, Modern and Extension History
- ❑ Program: The lecture program available at: <https://htansw.asn.au/Teachers/Study-Days>
- ❑ Format: The fine tradition of HTANSW study days will continue, with lectures on many popular topics by experienced teachers and HSC markers. Our program provides a wide range of topics and choices. Regional students who study a number of history courses will have a choice of different days to attend.
- ❑ Remote Subsidy: As part of our ongoing commitment to supporting remote teachers & students, HTANSW offers the “Philippa Medcalf Memorial Remote Subsidy Grant” to facilitate attendance at the HSC History Study Days. Each grant offers up to $1,000 in transport/accommodation subsidy (GST inclusive). This year there will be up to 6 grants available.
