HTANSW 2022 Trial Examination Papers

CONDITIONS OF USE

The HTANSW Ancient, Modern and History Extension Trial Examination Papers are for use within a Confidentiality Period which runs from the date of delivery until midday on Friday 19 August 2022.

All purchasing schools and teachers involved in co-ordinating or marking history trial exams agree to respect this Confidentiality Period and abide by the following Conditions of Use:

1. During the Confidentiality Period (18 July to Friday 19 August at 12 pm):
  - Only the exact number of papers required for use should be copied within the purchasing school and all copies should be kept in a secure location.
  - Only those teachers involved with co-ordinating, setting or marking trial exams for the relevant courses (Ancient History, Modern History and/or History Extension) should be shown the exams.
  - Students who are completing these trial examinations should have no access to electronic devices that may allow them to copy or disseminate this material.
  - Teachers who privately tutor any of the history courses should not have access to these examination papers.
  - No examination paper is to be taken outside an examination room.
  - No element of these examination papers (questions, sources, marking criteria or responses) should be returned to students.
  - Please do not identify the papers as having been published by HTANSW.
2. The exam papers are editable and may be adapted by the purchasing school.
3. Space has been provided on the papers for the purchasing school to add its own logo.
4. Please do not advise students of the origins of the papers.
5. HTANSW remains the copyright holder for all papers. Both during the Confidentiality Period and beyond, the papers may be copied and used only by the purchasing school.

Your professionalism in safeguarding the integrity of these Trial Examinations and respecting copyright will assist HTANSW in continuing to support teachers and students with the provision of quality resources.

Confidentiality Period to: Friday 19 August 2022 at 12 pm (midday)
